Atlanta Saloons Closed While New Governor Is Inaugurated

By Associated Press. ATLANTA, Ga., June 26.—Twenty-six men were brought to the county jail here today by militiamen guarding the country home of Governor Slaton. The state guardsmen said they were arrested while trying to enter the governor's estate.

Near-by saloons were closed, the entire night watch of police was held at stations for extra duty and the guard of militia still surrounded Governor Slaton's home in an effort of the authorities to forestall today and tonight demonstrations of protest against the governor's commutation of Leo M. Frank's death sentence.

The term of Governor Slaton expired at noon and crowds were in the city for the inauguration of Nat H. Harris.

The business section of the city was patrolled by a double watch of police today and forty extra mounted men were sent to the capital. Other-wise, to all outward appearances, the city was normal.

The arrests and hostile demonstration when Governor Slaton appeared at today's inauguration of his successor, Nat H. Harris, made the "final day of Slaton's term stormy." The demonstration, the inauguration was quickly suppressed, and Governor Slaton was cheered when he remarked, on leaving the state seal, that it had "never been abused during my administration."

His friends charged that was a reference to his commutation to life imprisonment of the death sentence of Leo M. Frank.

Militiamen who brought the prisoners in from the Slaton estate said seven pistols and three clubs were taken from the men after an exchange of shots, in which no one was hurt.

Hayward Water Co. Seeks Higher Rate

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Higher rates for water service in Hayward are asked for by the Hayward Water Company in an application filed today with the Railroad Commission.

The application requests authority to put into effect a schedule of rates which will insure the company a return of six per cent upon its investment. To do this, the application states, it will be necessary to make an increase of 25.5 per cent over the rates now enforced. That the present rates should be double those existing in order to keep the company on a safe financial basis is the opinion of the directors who have taken the matter to the Railroad Commission.

It is declared that the company under the present rate has paid no dividends for five years.

Demands Stock for Money He Loaned

SUR was filed against the Centerville Water Company and M. S. Pires Jr., in the superior court today by G. C. Hahn, who demands the defendants compelled to issue to him $12,500 worth of bonds in the corporation. He says that the railroad commission authorized the loaning of the stock when the water company was formed. Hahn alleges that the loaned Pires the money, taking a mortgage on the old Pires water rights which were later incorporated into the Centerville Water Company.

By Associated Press. LONDON, June 26, 6:53 p. m.—General W. A. Soukhomiloff, the Russian minister of war, has resigned, according to a dispatch from Petrograd to the Reuters Telegram Company.

It is understood that General Soukhomiloff, a former assistant minister of war, will succeed General Soukhomiloff.

BANKER BULMORE SUES FOR DIVORCE

David A. Bulmore, trust officer of the Oakland Bank of Savings, and one of the best known bankers on the Pacific Coast, filed a divorce action against Mrs. Christine Bulmore, a society favorite of the east bay elite, in the Superior Court today, alleging that she deserted him.

The action, which was filed in the name of David A. Bulmore, is a plain matter of divorce.

"Mrs. Bulmore and I are still friends," said. "There is no scandal, nor treachery of any kind. Mrs. Bulmore is not out of the city. I cannot say where."

Zapata Is Victor in Battle at Gates of National Capital

Trains Held Ready to Save Remnant of Vanquished

BULLETIN. WASHINGTON, June 26.—Official advices today report a smashing defeat of General Gonzales and the Carranza army advancing on Mexico City by the Zapata forces. General Carranza has ordered all available rolling stock from Vera Cruz toward the capital to aid the retreat and in an effort to save Gonzales and his army.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, June 26.—The Red Cross today hurried $500 to the consul at San Luis Potosi to buy food for the destitute. The society's agents at Monterey are feeding 15,000 regularly.

"The consulate would be continually besieged by a hungry, howling mob," said an unofficial report from Monterey today. "If it were not for the Red Cross corn and beans."

"If permanent peace should arrive there is a possibility of another corn crop later in the fall, which would help to carry Mexico through the winter, but unless peace does come, Mexico will be the most destitute land in the world; and before winter all other food will be worn out and the people will be both hungry and naked."

A gift of $500,000 of goods will be forwarded immediately to Monterey where the Red Cross officials say it is much needed.

State Department advices today contained nothing bearing on the reported occupation of Mexico City by Carranza troops, but announced General Carranza's guarantee of protection for non-combatants in case of fighting there.

Slav Line Is Held Along the Dniester

By Associated Press. PETROGRAD, June 26, via London, 5:15 p. m.—The Russians are continuing successfully to hold their lines along the Dniester. After a six-day battle the Russo-German forces have been defeated at Komar and Rudzhat, northwest of Kallach. At Martynoff (Martynoffskoye) a similar attempt to gain a foothold on the Russian side of the river failed. The Grand Duke Nicholas' troops capturing forty officers and 1700 men.

A German force attempting to co-operate in this region is being stubbornly opposed.

Rumania Near War? Army on Furlough

By Associated Press. BERLIN, June 26, via London, 5:50 p. m.—According to a dispatch from Bucharest, the Rumanian cabinet has voted to disband part of the army and give the soldiers long furloughs. The action was taken, it was said, at the instance of the premier and minister of war, M. Bratianu, who explained that "negotiations with Russia would require a long time."

German Activity Reported in the Argonne may indicate a drive on Paris, but the closing of the Belgium frontier may mean the transfer of veterans from the eastern front for another attempt to break through to the English channel. Many persons believe, however, that no great offensive movement will be attempted along the western front until another effort has been made to reach Warsaw, against which position the Germans are said to be bringing big guns from Essen.

Inactivity on Minor Points

No great activity is to be noted along any of the minor fronts. The Italians claim to be engaged in consolidating the positions they have won along the river Isonzo, while from the Dardanelles come reports of enormous losses suffered by the Turks in defending the peninsula.

The Italian armies are continuing their work of keeping clear their front in the Tyrol-Trentino and in Cadore and Carniola by artillery fire and isolated infantry operations, the official reports say. Progress is being made along the Isonzo, according to the Italian statement.

The most recent definite news from the Dardanelles is a report by the Turkish war office that on June 25th a Turkish patrol destroyed a party of the allies and captured arms and other booty.

The French report comparative inactivity along the western front. Their progress, they say, has been checked in places by the conditions of the ground, due to recent storms.

An interesting document has been published in the Vorwaerts of Berlin in the shape of a full page appeal for peace from the Social Democrat party in Germany. It asserts that, although Germany was attacked by greatly superior forces she has demonstrated that she is unconquerable and in the name of humanity should take the first step for peace. The people want peace, the appeal declares. Opposition of the party to territorial conquest is clearly stated.

The question of munitions still is absorbing public attention in England. RUSSIANS DRIVE Foe ACROSS DNIESTER RIVER, CLEARING LEFT BANK AT TWO POINTS

Big Guns Sent From Essen to Batter Down Defenses of Warsaw, Paris Fears New Attack

By Associated Press. LONDON, June 26.—The left bank of the river Dniester has been entirely cleared of the Teutonic troops, who forced their way across at two points early this week, according to the latest Russian official statements, but the Austro-German forces are making desperate efforts to effect a passage elsewhere.

Bridging operations were begun by the Germans and Austrians south of Bukaszowice on the very night the remnants of the detachments which had previously crossed in the Kozany district in the region of Martynoffskoye were being driven back in the former and captured in the latter region, the Russians report. The battle is still raging at the new contact point.

Nearly everywhere else along the eastern front the drive of the Teutonic allies has been at least temporarily checked, according to the Russians. Their report mentions specifically a breaking up of the German offensive west of the river Niemen in the Orzye and Omulew valleys and on the Vistula, south of Pilica. A later accretion to the force of the German drive in the Orzye region is indicated, however, the Russians reporting that they were forced to give way before annihilating artillery fire. No important change is reported east of Lemberg.

Allies Await German Drive

Military observers are watching the eastern territory and reported movements of German troops on their interior lines, without venturing more than vague speculation as to whether these mean another Teutonic drive at Warsaw or renewed activity on a huge scale by the Germans in Flanders. There is a pause, at the present moment, on both battle fronts on the continent. The British public with breathless expectancy awaits the next move. It is conceded that this move is Germany's and it may be made against either Warsaw, Paris or Calais.

EXODUS ON AT CITY HALL

Reported Entire Civil Service Board Is to Withdraw

Other Appointees Quit Places as Mayor's Term Closes

Embarrassment has come to Mayor Frank K. Mott in the last days of his administration. Instead of having seven appointments to make to various municipal boards, it is probable, from the rate at which resignations have been coming to his desk in the past 48 hours, it is probable that he will have to fill twice that number of vacancies.

The exodus of members of municipal boards marks the absolute failure of one of the essential provisions of the Oakland City Charter. It was intended by the charter framers to remove certain phases of municipal government from political fluctuations, and to make the policies in these departments a continuing process of development. To effect this end, a number of boards were created, and the method of making appointments was so planned that a majority of board could not be controlled by any one mayor, the appointments having been placed in the hands of the executive. The terms of office were fixed at six years, one appointment to each board to be made every year, or every two years. The first appointments were made for one, two, three, four or six years.

SIX SUCH BOARDS.

The boards so planned were the park board, playground board, civil service commission, library and museum board of directors and the municipal ward and commission. During his term of office, Mayor Mott has constantly kept these appointments free from political color, and has permitted to hold the fullest freedom in this respect.

With the overturning of the old administration, and the prospect of antagonistic policies ruling at the city hall, many members of these boards have resigned. In the case of the civil service, the board of directors of the city, they have served without compensation, and the only return for the work and study and time given was the feeling of having performed a satisfactory public service. If their former policies were to be thwarted, this sense of having a part in achievement and accomplishment of good ends would be lost.

ROBINSON LEADS WAY.

The first resignation to be tendered was that of Harrison R. Robinson, president of the civil service board. Robinson's resignation, however, could be understood, as he had been a storm center during his four years of office. Having at heart the principles of civil service, he desired that there should not be involved in antagonism, and so withdrew.

It is now rumored, however, that Benjamin H. Pendleton, former president of the city council and Robinson's associate on the board for four years, may also resign. Pendleton's health has not been good for some time. In addition to that, he has been a close associate with Mayor Mott in the city administration for ten years, and it might be that he would come under the same form of attack as that which might have been launched against Robinson, an attack based not upon principle, but upon personality.

JONES ALSO TIED.

Roscoe D. Jones, the youngest member of the board, both in years and in years of service, has expressed his willingness to serve, provided he is associated with men not governed by political motives. But he is not particularly anxious to continue.

The prospects are that Mayor Mott will be forced to call for resignations the board of park directors. He has to fill the place made vacant through the death of the late James P. Edgett. William Buckley Taylor, whose term expires this month, has declined to accept reappointment.

The resignation of Walter G. Mott, president of the board, is declared, has been tendered to Mayor Mott, but has not as yet been accepted.

Mott has only Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in which to select men to fill these important places. It is thought by his friends that he will be reduced in the near future to searching the telephone directory for available names.

N. Y. Fire Chief As a Volunteer

Battalion Captain Aids Oakland Laddies

Oakland firemen saw a New York battalion commander in action today, when Captain A. E. Fitzgerald, of the New York department, "officiated" at a blaze which destroyed a small printing plant and garage owned by H. J. McKim, at 357 Thirty-seventh street. Captain Fitzgerald, who is visiting Joseph McCall, at 433 Thirty-seventh street, during his vacation, happened in the place as the alarm was turned in.

Introducing himself to Battalion Chief Barr, and offering his services, he took off his coat and joined the fire fighters.

The blaze was confined to the two small wooden buildings, the firemen succeeding in protecting the densely built neighborhood and the Blind Home buildings, which abutted the two burning

"Oakland," declared the New York captain, "has without a doubt the finest fire department of its size in the United States. The efficiency shown here is remarkable. The only other city that can compare with it in equipment is Mount Vernon."

The fire today started in the printing office. The cause was not ascertained by Police Captain Fitzgerald, who investigated. The damage was about $250.

WIFE MISSING, CLOTHES, TOO, ARE GONE

ALAMEDA, June 26.—If a man should not only run away with your wife and children, but also take nearly your entire wardrobe, wouldn't you be rather disconcerted? According to a complaint filed by Joe R. Molera, an officer in the Swiss colony, this morning, F. F. Terramonte took a large portion of wardrobe from his home on Laurel street before he left for New York, where he met Mrs. Pay Carranza Molera.

Molera swore to a Terramonte before Justice of the Peace Elmer E. Johnson, charging Terramonte with grand larceny. The warrant will be withheld pending action in the charge against Terramonte in San Francisco, his wife having accused him of failure to provide for his minor children.

Terramonte, a former local restaurateur and neighbor of the Moleras on Laurel street, was recently brought to San Francisco from New York on the charge filed by his wife. He had been indicted by the San Francisco grand jury and lost his battle against extradition in the Eastern metropolis. This morning he appeared in Judge Griffin's court in San Francisco for arraignment.

Terramonte succeeded in obtaining bail when he arrived in San Francisco a few days ago. Terramonte was given a $1500 cash or $5000 bond and Terramonte was released into custody. He has not as yet obtained the increased bail.

LIKE LAUNDRY LIST.

Molera, whose wife is said to have deserted him, taking with her their two children, ascertained yesterday that Terramonte's trunk contained a large number of articles belonging to his wardrobe. He made a long list of the waistcoats, cravats, shirts, underwear and shoes that were found in the trunk and which he claims Terramonte stole from him while they were neighbors in Alameda.

Molera has retained Police Judge L. R. Weinmann as his attorney in the matter, the charge of grand larceny was presented to Justice Johnson and the warrant issued by that official. Terramonte will be arrested and brought here if he is found in obtaining bail across the bay.

Mrs. Molera was the former Pay Carranza, the Spanish nightingale. She resided with her husband and children on Laurel street, in this city, and the domestic life was apparently happy until the appearance of Terramonte, who lived a few doors from the Molera home.

One day Molera returned home and found that his wife and children, as well as his wardrobe, were missing. He notified the police and a countrywide search was made, resulting in the arrest of Terramonte and Mrs. Molera in New York City, where they were found together.

MASTER MAKER TO SPEAK AT VIOLIN ROUND TABLE

At the violin round table Friday, July 16, of the State Music Teachers' convention week the Alameda County Association has secured the consent of Herman Muller, the master violin maker of Berkeley, to give some of his store of violin knowledge for the benefit of those who will attend the meeting. Mr. Muller will illustrate the violin, its construction, its development, by reproduction of rare old instruments. He is now working on a rebec, one of the ancient instruments from which the violin evolved, which he hopes to have finished for the convention. Samuel Savannah of San Francisco will play on these old instruments while Arthur Fickenscher of Berkeley uses an old harpsichord kindly loaned by the Eilers Music Company of San Francisco for the accompaniment. This program will be of interest not only to music teachers, but to all students of music history in general.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS DEMANDING PEACE 'Let Unconquerable Nation Offer Hand,' Is Appeal.

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, June 25.—The Social Democratic party in Germany has caused to be published in the Vorwaerts a full page appeal for peace. The interesting document declares the people want peace, and the government is called upon, in the name of humanity, to make known its readiness to enter negotiations.

The appeal is published under the heading, "Social Democracy and Peace." It begins with a reference to the fact that the Socialists have been warring for an international understanding, but when war did come they placed themselves at the disposal of the Fatherland. It then refers to the declaration of the party in the Reichstag, August 4, 1914, which said:

"We demand, as soon as safety has been secured and our opponents are brought to an end through a peace which will make possible friendships with neighboring nations."

The appeal closes with these words: "The managing committee (Vorstand) of the Social Democratic party has approved the policy of conquest. We now raise anew our sharpest protest against every effort and every purpose of which the end is the annexation of foreign territory and the oppression of other nations—efforts which have become public in Germany particularly through the demands of great economic associations as well as through the speeches of leading non-socialist politicians. "Even the recital of such efforts serve further to postpone that peace which is warmly desired by the whole nation. The people want peace! If this war, which daily demands new sacrifices, is not to draw itself out needlessly, to ending until the full exhaustion of all the nations in it, one of the participating powers must offer the hand of peace. Germany, who, attacked by greatly superior forces, has thus far victoriously defended herself against all the attempts to bring their starvation plan to naught and demonstrated that she is unconquerable, should take the first step to bring about peace."

"In the name of humanity and culture and supported by the favorable military situation brought about by the bravery of our comrades in arms, we demand of the government that it make known its readiness to enter peace negotiations in order to put an end to this bloody conflict. "We expect our socialist comrades in other belligerent lands to exert their influence on their own government in this same sense."

HIGH COST OF LIVING IS CUT BY WAR, REPORTS STATE CONTROL BOARD

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, June 25.—Wars, blockades and consequent interruption of commerce have, so far as the state board of control is able to determine, reduced the cost of living at the state institutions, rather than increased it. The prices obtained this year at the five state hospitals for the insane are better than in previous years by many thousands of dollars, according to Dr. Fred M. Hatch, general superintendent of state hospitals, and R. J. Tehaney, secretary of the state board of control.

Beef has dropped a cent a pound on all grades; oil has dropped 20 per cent, and all other staples in proportion, with the exception of sugar. This, according to Tehaney, is high in the open market, but is furnished the state hospitals at a price much below that paid by the ordinary consumer.

One of the chief factors in reducing the cost of all commodities this year was the keen competition among the state's retailers and wholesalers. In view of the troubled conditions abroad, a strong effort was made by bidders to obtain the state's business.

It is reported that the cost of clothing and foodstuffs will be below the costs of other years.

TO HOLD PEACHES.
FRESNO, June 25.—Because of the large crop of peaches in the East and South, green fruit packers of Fresno, Kings and Tulare counties have decided to handle very few peaches this year. Most of the shipments out of the state will be made by packers who early this spring bought fruit on contract.

MUST REPORT SORE EYES.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 25.—Governor Dunning signed a bill which required that a report be made to the state board of health within two weeks of the birth of any infant with sore eyes. The measure provides for the free distribution of silver nitrate.

PARIS, June 25.—The French war office official reports read:

"Considering the front as a whole, last night passed with relative quiet. North of Arras there is nothing to report with the exception of some infantry engagements, accompanied by a lively cannonading between the Souchez sugar refinery and the national highway between Bethune and Arras."

"Our progress has been checked by the condition of the ground, which in certain places has been rendered almost impassable by storms."

"On the Champagne front and in Argonne the fighting with mines has been going on to our advantage."

ITALIAN

By Associated Press.
ROME, June 25, via Paris, June 25.—The official statement issued tonight at the headquarters of the Italian general staff says:

"Our reconnaissance, extending beyond the front in the Tyrol-Trentino region in Cadore and Carniola, indicate increased activity on the part of the enemy in the work of reinforcing and placing new batteries. We are frustrating this work by the efficient fire of our artillery and the bold operations of small detachments."

"In Carniola, on the night of June 24-25, the enemy vainly renewed his attacks against our line from Val Grande to Val Pichio."

"Our operations along the Isonzo are developing methodically in spite of the manifold natural difficulties of the ground."

"An Austrian battery which for some days has been disturbing our troops by its fire, causing especially serious damage to villages with injuries to their inhabitants, was located today and became the object of a well-directed fire from our artillery. Immediately afterward a large white flag with a cross was hoisted from a villa near the location of the battery with the evident purpose of deceiving us and stopping our fire."

GERMAN

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, June 25, via London, 4:03 p. m.—The German official communication today follows:

"In the western theater: Close range fighting, which has proceeded uninterruptedly for some days around the portion of our positions which remained in the hands of the enemy north of Souchez, and half way between Souchez and Neuville, ended during the night, when the last of the French were driven from our trenches. So recently as yesterday evening the enemy received strong reinforcements at this point. As they also did at both sides of the Lorette Heights. As they advanced to attack south of Souchez, they were beaten off."

"Near Souain, in the Champagne, we blew up a portion of an enemy position. East of Perthes, the French accidentally destroyed by a mine some of their own defensive works."

"On the Heights of the Meuse, at Combray, last fighting is going on."

"On both sides of the Meuse, the enemy brought up troops from deep over a front of three kilometers (1.3 miles) long. They broke up under our fire. Where the enemy pressed forward to our trenches he was beaten off with heavy loss. In an attack afterwards we captured an enemy advanced position east of De-tranchee. In this district, the enemy still holds a small part of a trench, which he captured June 20."

"Attacks by advance patrols of the enemy near Leintrey, east of Luneville, failed."

"Since the commencement of the great struggle near Arras, our air-men have been struggling with those of the enemy for mastery in the air. This struggle has caused losses on both sides, but ours have not been in vain. For some days we apparently have had the upper hand."

"In the eastern theater: A Wurtemberg regiment stormed the Russian positions southeast of Orlenda, north of Przemyśl and on both sides of the Murówka, and held the positions against several counter attacks, including some at night. The booty amounted to 236 prisoners and four machine guns."

"In the southeastern theater: The army of General von Linsingen is continuing to attack the northern bank of the Dniester. The right bank near Haila still held by the enemy. Since the beginning of their attack on this river, June 22, they have taken 2500 prisoners."

"Between the Dniester and the district east of Lemberg fighting continues."

U. S. Not Considering Embargo on Shipments

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—The United States is not considering placing an embargo on shipments to any belligerent country. This was stated officially today at the state department as a result of published reports that an embargo on all shipments of American products to England was likely in retaliation for interference with American trade with Australia.

With the La Follette bill threatening to lay up the ships in Mission bay and the Togo Kien Kaiao being sent through the Panama Canal, the Dollar Line is beginning to take notice of the new La Follette bill, which would give the public right of a robbery there a few days ago. A package of 25 pearls was among the lost articles. The name of the owner was not disclosed, but he or she was believed to be a member of the wealthy summer colony.

OFFER THEIR TALENT FOR NEWSPAPER DAY

At a meeting of the "Pals," a local theatrical and social club, held Thursday night in the Dunne building, a committee representing "Newspapermen's Day" were assured the co-operation of the club in the presentation of an elaborate vaudeville program on the Plaza during the Exposition's Joy Zone, Saturday evening, July 24.

The participation of the "Pals" promises the appearance of several international performers, among them a number of theatrical stars new to San Francisco. This vaudeville program will be one of the night features of "Newspapermen's Day," and will occupy the attention of Joy Zone patrons for one hour, beginning at 10 o'clock. Immediately following the vaudeville performance there will be a reception and dancing in the Toyland ballroom in honor to Art Smith, the boy aviator, who has endeavored himself to every man, woman and child in San Francisco for one hour.

The "Pals" vaudeville program and the reception to follow are but two of the many interesting events arranged for "Newspapermen's Day," a celebration that promises to be one of the most interesting thus far held at the P. P. L. E.

MOTOR PLANT FACTIONS FIGHT OVER DIRECTORATE

SACRAMENTO, June 25.—A fight is on between opposing factions of stockholders for the control of the Golden West Motor Company, which has a factory site and buildings on the Riverside road for the manufacture of automobiles and tractors.

Bids are being eagerly sought as the contest for retention of the present directorate is to be settled on July 7. The directorate now comprises:

M. L. Burns, president; W. H. Williams, Livermore, secretary; B. C. Barnett, Oroville, treasurer; with John McNear of Oroville, Jacob Hook of Reno, G. Mooney of Marysville, C. C. Warner, E. S. Robinson of Sacramento, directors.

President Burns and his contingent are being opposed by E. S. Robinson, inventor, and others.

TRAILED BY SCENTED MONEY.

MAYHEATMAN, Kan., June 25.—Mrs. Mary Smith, who conducts a restaurant here, was robbed a few nights ago of $300. The money was taken from a box of heavily-scented face powder in which Mrs. Smith had concealed it. The same night the ticket agent at the Union Pacific depot sold a negro a ticket to Junction City and noticed that the money he received was heavily perfumed. The agent was able to give a description of the negro to the officers, and several business men at Junction City remember receiving some of the perfumed money. Because he shed tainted money as he went, the negro has been trailed to Kansas City, but here his roll apparently gave out, as no further trace of him has been found.

MORE "OLD BONES."

CHICKASAW, Okla., June 25.—While making excavations at Shanoan Springs, W. A. Hopkins of Chickasaw unearthed several large bones which apparently are the remains of a mastodon. Mr. Hopkins had just finished his work and was smoothing off the earth when his spade struck a hard substance. On examination the substance proved to be a petrified bone which weighs seventy pounds and is six feet long. It measures twelve inches across in the widest part and from that narrows down to about three inches. It appears to have been one of the hind legs of the animal's hind legs. It is broken off at the ends, so it is impossible to know just how much larger it was originally.

THE END OF THE ANT NUISANCE

No Need to Suffer Longer
From This Pest.

An old philosopher once said, "All three things shall pass away." It was a long time after this truth was given to the world, however, before a means was discovered to make ants pass away and stay away.

In the meantime thousands of women in all parts of the world have been driven almost to distraction by this intolerable household pest.

It remained for a man to find the remedy. A baker and candy-maker in Los Angeles, whose place was over-run with ants, had reached a point where he must either get rid of the ants or go out of business. After much experimenting he prepared a paste which drove every ant out of his shop in one day.

This wonderful remedy can now be had at all drug stores under the name of Kelllogg's Ant Paste. Try a package today and you will never be annoyed with ants hereafter. Advertisement.

Big Reward Offered for Missing Jewels

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 25.—Advertisement in today's papers offering $10,000 reward for the return of jewels passed from a residence in Southern California to a robbery there a few days ago. A package of 25 pearls was among the lost articles. The name of the owner was not disclosed, but he or she was believed to be a member of the wealthy summer colony.

By Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, June 25.—Thomas Furness, aged 32, an attorney of Washington, D. C., was charged by the police on a charge of having made a murderous attack on his father-in-law, Franklin S. Furness, a millionaire candy manufacturer, whose home is also in Washington. The attack, it is alleged, took place in a room of a local hotel early Thursday. The candy manufacturer was struck on the head with a cane.

ANY of the great problems of the day center about the women of the world, and in war time many of these problems will come to women for their solution.

The women of America have more power perhaps than has ever belonged to women anywhere in the world, or at any period of its progress.

And it is well to note in what a fine fashion women are rising to their responsibilities, and answering the call of the hour.

Smart set circles, there is a leader in Queen Mary. In the early days of her reign she was not popular. Extremes of fashion never appealed to her, and the low corsage and the tight skirts of a year or two ago came in for her severe condemnation. But all that was only on the surface. Queen Mary is probably now the most popular woman in England. She had a birthday recently, and a well-known American woman in London writes concerning it:

"Wednesday was Queen Mary's birthday, but no salutes were given in England, following the orders of the king. Never has the nation felt itself so surely and so closely in sympathy with the queen as at the present time.

"She shares with the people the common burden of war; their hearts go out to her the more warmly because she has her own personal anxieties and sorrows. She has given two sons to the service of the country, the Prince of Wales at the front and Prince Albert on his ship, and she has lost her cousin, the late Prince Maurice of Battenberg, who was killed in action. They know, too, that she has never spared herself the hardest work, and has taken a lead in very good cause.

"These have not been a matter of trivial interest with her. She has not merely asserted; she has originated and suggested and shown in half a hundred ways the qualities of initiative and enthusiasm.

"The queen has worked incessantly for the alleviation of distress. She realized in the early days of the war that many hard cases of unemployment were inevitable, and has done her best to minimize them. It is only necessary to mention Queen Mary's Needlework Guild and the Queen's Work for Women's Fund. For both these institutions many distressed women owe her majesty a very real debt. To say so much is but to take a glance at some of the queen's most important work and to take no account of other lesser matters.

"Presents and newspapers for the troops, belts and socks, books, matinees and concerts—these and many other things go to make up the big debt of gratitude the country owes to the queen, not accurately to be measured, but very deeply felt."

A distinguished French traveler, who spent many months in America, took occasion recently to specially compliment American women:

"The American society woman is the greatest ornament and the highest expression of luxury in the United States. I see her move on, well aware of her power to please and glad of it. She walks with her light and queenly step, 'the goddess revealed in her walk.' I shall no doubt meet her, and hear her discuss Paris, in French, with her friends and rivals as beautifully dressed and fascinating as herself, all together in a group like a bouquet of living flowers. Her complexion is always fresh and without a trace of fatigue. She is glad to be alive. She is a blossom in a chalice of silky fabrics. Carelessly fastened around her neck is a pearl necklace falling on her corsage like a ribbon.

"O, American women, elective queens, an aristocracy in a democracy, what sums of money pour husbands, your fathers, and the whole of your country must make to go on supplying you with dress! It is some compensation to think that some of the money will be spent in Paris.

"Flowers, women, children, avenues of new verdure brightened by new houses, all combine in my memory to form a symbol, a new springtime, the springtime of a nation."

That is something to live up to—the springtime with its fullness of enthusiasm—of energy with its sense of youth.

Another learned man, a good student of human nature, who was recently in California, spoke in much the same fashion of the California women.

"Because of them," he said, "it is always gay morning in California—it is the land of gay morning."

There is something fascinating and pictureque in the phrase "gay morning"—for in the heart of the "gay morning" one finds the youth of things.

CALIFORNIA HOSTESS COMES INTO OWN.

California hostesses will come into their own this year, and already one hears much of the happy entertainment made necessary by the Exposition. Leading California women have always been ready to take upon themselves many responsibilities, and they assume them most cheerfully.

No hostess entertains more each year than Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler. The home of the president of the University of California, is just off the campus, with a most the Exposition are invited to the Hacienda, and Mrs. Hearst, as honorary president of the Women's Board, has ably and most generously filled her responsibilities.

Mrs. Francis Carolan, Mrs. William H. Crocker, and Mrs. Frederick Kohl are all hostesses not only well known in Burlingame, but throughout the State and in the East. Besides her home at Burlingame, Mrs. Kohl has a lovely summer home, "Idiewild," on the shores of Tahoe. A steam launch on the lake adds an additional pleasure to the happy summer days.

Mrs. Francis Carolan is among the Americans very well known in Paris. She was always very popular in the superb view. Almost every distinguished man who comes to California, visits the university, and President Wheeler always most courteously entertains him in his home. Hardly a day passes in which Mrs. Wheeler has not had luncheon or dinner guests, and there are the "visiting parents innumerable" to be entertained when they call upon President and Mrs. Wheeler. The two largest social functions planned by the Wheelers are the Charter Day reception and luncheon, and the reception to the graduating class of the university.

Mrs. Wheeler is very generous, and the welcome she offers to guests is always very sincere, so her home has attained a reputation for hospitality that is now nation wide. It is almost a quarter of a century since Mrs. Hearst was made a regent of the University of California, and in all that time, her beautiful home, the Hacienda at Pleasanton, has been the center of a hospitality, expressing truly, California ideals.

No country home on the coast has such a record for week-end parties, and all distinguished people visiting the university are promptly accorded an invitation to the beautiful Hacienda.

Almost every week, guests visiting

French city, and her apartment there was very like a salon. She met a great many very well known people abroad, and many of them will be her guests when they come to California this season.

The William Crockers have a large connection both in New York and Paris. The Charles Alexanders, their relatives, are well established in New York, and Mrs. Alexander, who is part of New York's most exclusive smart set, is at the head of many important activities.

The Malcom Whitmans, (Jennie Crocker), also number many of New York's smart families among their intimate friends, so the Crocker circle of relatives are well known in New York.

One of the most important of the American women whose home is in Paris is the Princess Poniatowski, who is Mrs. William Crocker's sister, and who was formerly Miss Beth Sperry. She is respected and loved by the women of the old French aristocracy—one of the few American women to be taken into the fold.

The William Crockers have traveled so extensively, and are so well known in America and abroad, that many guests will be entertained this season at "New Place," their Burlingame home.

MRS. WALTER CHADBOURNE HOWE OF BUENOS AYRES, WHO IS VISITING OAKLAND.—Scharz photo.

The California hostess has "charm" and she understands the art of entertaining very well indeed. In many cases she has had plenty of experience. Mrs. Victor Metcalf is one of the most popular hostesses around the bay. She was always one of the most charming members of the official set known as "The Cabinet Ladies," when her husband was the secretary of the navy.

Mrs. Metcalf was always most gracious, and won many laurels for California women in the days of her official life in Washington. She was a very warm personal friend of Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt and of Mrs. Taft, and she made more friends than almost any other woman who was with her in official life in Washington.

Mrs. Metcalf has a happy fashion of always keeping her friends, and she is called upon to entertain a great deal, when her eastern friends come to California.

Another most gracious hostess of whom Oakland is always very proud is Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook, who makes her home at the Oakland. She takes infinite pleasure in entertaining her friends and the Home Club, of clan, and artists especially are always sure of a warm welcome in her home.

Another most gracious hostess of whom Oakland is always very proud is Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook, who makes her home at the Oakland. She takes infinite pleasure in entertaining her friends and the Home Club, of

A hostess from whom much is expected and who never fails to respond to any call is Miss Ethel Moore. Miss Moore is a graduate of Vassar, and alumnae from that well-known institution of learning coming here are often Miss Moore's guests.

Those who come to visit our famed playgrounds are often her guests as well.

Miss Moore is a member of the Jury of Awards, one of the most important committees connected with the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

A warm welcome awaits the guest happy enough to be invited to the home of Mrs. Chabot. The new home on Vernon Heights is very like a lovely French home, fine architectural lines. The stately yews in the garden make a fine avenue, and the grounds remind one of well-known places in the suburbs of Paris.

Meantime much entertainment is going on in the various homes of the city. The Sharons have had many friends from the Islands, as have the Alexanders.

The F. M. Smith's have had Eastern guests at Arbor Villa, and the A. L. Whites expect to entertain extensively this summer when Mrs. M. L. Fallouts (Florence White), arrives with her little daughter.

Mrs. James MacCitt has also been a very busy hostess of the early summer, as her daughters, with their children have both been here from New York.

The J. E. Brougers have closed their home in Claremont, and have gone to Tahoe for three months, they will entertain extensively when they re-open their home in the autumn.

The Warren Harrolds' new home will also be ready for them this autumn, and Mrs. Harrold is known as the most generous and most hospitable of all the matrons of the younger set.

The Warren Palmers have had guests for the Exposition, and many others are scheduled to enjoy their hospitality this season. Mrs. Palmer gives her guests a rare good time; they are made thoroughly welcome, and Mrs. Palmer has that wonderful optimism that makes the best of life conditions, and that happy sense of humor that would send cheer into the darkest day.

The Henry Taylors have one of the most beautiful homes around the bay—high on the summit of one of the Claremont hills, it resembles a castle of the old world. Every summer the Taylors go East, spending part of the season in Boston and on the Atlantic seaboard. This year they will entertain visitors in their Claremont home.

The Bowles will pass most of the summer in Oakland, and will entertain at "The Pines," their Claremont home—one of the most beautiful country places on this side of the bay.

Two delightful new homes at Piedmont will be ready for occupancy this year, the home of Mrs. T. L. Barker, and of the Tysons. Pretty Miss Marie Louise Tyson is a great favorite in society, and she is constantly planning entertainment in her home for her friends.

The McKee family usually has a reunion each summer, either at Tahoe or here, and in the family circle are Mrs. McKee, Sam Bell McKee, the Harold Spens Blacks, the Fred Magees, and the Norman Langs (Nellie McKee), of Oregon.

Monsieur and Madame Lanel (Amy McKee), have been for many months, in Rio Janeiro, where Mons. Lanel is the French consul, and where both are very popular.

Rio Janeiro is a gay and beautiful city, and one's lines are cast in pleasant places when one lives there, even though Brazil is a long way off from California.

Among the best known dinner hostesses around the bay is Mrs. Eleanor Martin, who can always be depended upon to entertain distinguished guests who may be presented to her.

Piedmont, too, is rapidly establishing a reputation for entertaining on a delightful scale, and among its charming homes are those of Wigginton Creed, W. Hinckley Taylor, Mark Requa, Wallace Alexander, Thomas Watson Cushing, Frank C. Havens, Wickham Havens, Clinton Walker, Murray Johnson, Miss Playter, Herbert Hamilton Brown, Arthur Breed, and William Barbour.

PICTURES IN THE MEDDLER.

Mrs. Walter Chadbourne Howe is spending the summer in Oakland from her home in Buenos Ayres, and is the house guest of Mrs. E. D. Yorker at her residence in Harrison street. Mrs. Howe is a charming woman, who has spent the past few years since her marriage in travel. She has been around the world with Mr. Howe, whose business interests take him to different quarters of the globe. For the past year they have lived in the South American capital.

Mrs. Franc Merchante is prominent in society across the bay and has many friends in Oakland. A few afternoons ago she was hostess at an informal tea in honor of Mrs. F. E. Knapp, of Los Angeles, at which several Oakland guests were entertained.

SOCIETY TAKES TO SERIOUS STUDIES.

Never before have the smart sets around the bay given themselves up to study in a systematic fashion. Everyone understands that this is a year of education—a season of opportunity, one all too fleeting. So on all sides classes are organized, and competent instructors lead at the Exposition bright bevy of women eager in their pursuit of knowledge. Architecture, sculpture, painting—are the subjects, in regular order marking the line of advance. One is reminded of Europe and Cook's tourists, "the trippers," as they are called in Europe, as one goes through the Fine Arts building. It is interesting to listen to the discussions these days—for many women of the smart set can tell one about many of the most famous paintings in the Fine Arts building—and they discuss most intelligently such work as Brangwyn, and they can tell one a great

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Golden Gate Park Museum receives into the full collection of one-of-a-kind, paintings, etc., of the late Sarah M. Spooner by the provisions of her will which was filed for probate in the local courts yesterday.

Miss Spooner gave the major portion of her valuable collection to the museum in 1904, and those pieces which it receives today to under the will were placed there at the same time, although it was understood they were merely loaned to the museum for exhibition purposes.

Included in the articles which the museum receives under the will is an acre of land which belonged to Louis XV of France and several valuable paintings.

Miss Spooner died in Weehawken in March, 1914.

"SADIE" WEEPS AT VISIT OF SMALL RUNAWAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Sadie, whose aliases are many, went astray years ago.

Rosa Reed, 741 Lombard street, went astray yesterday.

But Sadie had gone so far astray and her path, over many years, has been so tortuous that she never will be able to find her way back again.

Rosa, on the other hand, had just started out, and her parental feet that brought her back before she scarcely got started.

Rosa is 2½ years old. She can say "doggie" and "horse" and "mamma" and that is about all.

Heaven knows how old Sadie is in years. But her experience extends over centuries and centuries, away back, you might say, to the days of the saber tooth tiger.

They met in the city prison yesterday. Sadie had been brought in the night before, boisterous and shouting, her curly hair tangled over her face.

Rosa was next to her. She had little gold rings in her ears. She wore a clean little dress. She was picked up at Grant avenue and Broadway. She was lost.

She had a stick of candy and a cookie in her hands.

In the woman's ward of the city prison Rosa went astray while the other woman, was attending to other duties.

While Mrs. Love was hunting for her, Rosa's mother called to take her home. They found her outside the bars of Sadie's cell and they stood back around the corner and watched her go.

When Rosa went away in the arms of her mother she waved a farewell to Sadie and Sadie waved one back again. Then she laid down on her pallet and cried.

COUPLE KLOPE AND WED AT MARTINEZ.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Allison W. Church, son of William J. Church, a clerk employed by the Southern Pacific Company, and Mildred Sorenson, a stenographer, and the daughter of Chris Sorenson, closed a marriage yesterday, where they secured a license at the city hall.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Wright, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the home of the bride's parents, where they were taken by surprise when they learned of the marriage.

BANQUET HALL STORMED BY GENERAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—When the University of Michigan Alumni held their annual banquet tonight at the Hotel McLaughlin, on the exposition grounds, one of the hosts will be missing.

Reason? Cleveland R. Wright, of the law firm of Brittain & Kuhl, attorneys for the exposition, is too busy married at the moment to be able to assist in the receiving of the alumni guests.

At 8 o'clock in the chapel of Grace Cathedral, Dean Gresham will officiate at the marriage of Wright and Miss Alice Lohr, society girl of Boston Mass.

Miss Lohr, who is a graduate of the Massachusetts Girls' Seminary, and the daughter of Mrs. Theresa Lohr, 525 Geary street, and Wright, met at the last meeting of the University of Michigan Alumni a year ago. Recently they decided to celebrate this meeting with the wedding which will take place tonight.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom will return to the hotel where they will make their home in Mill Valley.

SOCIETY GIRL FIGHTS FIRE IN HER HOME.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Miss Arabella Scherwin, well known in the exclusive younger set, and daughter of R. P. Scherwin, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, seized a fire extinguisher and put out a blaze in the drawing-room at her home last night.

The fire started when a gust of wind blew sparks from the fireplace and set a rug ablaze. Mrs. Scherwin and her daughter discovered the fire. The damage is minimal. Scherwin is in New York.

COMEDIAN HERE AND SECOND WIFE AT DEATH.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Ralph C. Hara, comedian, who was divorced in 1910 on grounds of cruelty by Lulu Hara, the actress, and who was married two years later to Mrs. Leah Hara, a divorcee, filed suit in the Supreme Court yesterday for a divorce on the ground of non-cohabitation with two co-respondents. Hara's second marital experience was two years shorter than his first, which lasted four years.

Mrs. Hara became Hara's second wife after a month's courtship at a midnight wedding in San Francisco on February 15, 1912, at which Lady de Batho (Lily Langtry) was one of the witnesses.

deal about the symbolism which lends such a wonderful interest to decorative art at the Exposition.

There was a good beginning for the art interest out here, for women through club work had made great progress in their art studies. And it must be remembered that on this coast are owned "The Man with the Hoe," and other Milleta, and there are Carols, Romneys, Gainsboroughs, and Whistlers—often placed on exhibition to gladden the hearts of those who love art, or of those who are trying to evolve a genuine appreciation of good pictures.

That which a well-known French artist wrote recently of America, is especially true of California:

"We must beware of fostering our European delusion that all our art has to do is to produce it. They want buyers in the United States. A change is going on. National taste is in process of formation in America, while its purity is endangered among us by official patronage and by disregard of order and cleanliness. A nation that seeks for beauty, and always finds a place for it in Nature, in cities and in houses, will soon stop living on borrowed capital. It will produce its own artists. It has already had a Whistler, a Sargent—I know some others, and one of these days they will begin to export!"

There are many study clubs in connection with the Exposition, all planned, for educational advancement. Foremost among them is the Monday Evening club, the members of which come from San Francisco and Burlingame. The last meeting of the club was held at the Fairmont on Monday, and the hostess of the evening was Mrs. William H. Crocker.

Mrs. Crocker's gown of black chiffon over white satin was exceedingly effective and her ornaments were the beautiful pearls she so often wears. They are arranged in long strands, and are exceedingly handsome.

Mrs. George Mayne, who has recently returned from Petrograd, was one of the guests of the evening. She has had very interesting experiences during her stay in Russia, and one hears she was very popular in the Russian capital. Mrs. Mayne wore magnificent ornaments in pearls and diamonds.

The speaker of the evening was M. Hovelague of France, who gave a very finished address, and who spoke with much feeling of the debt of France to America in these crucial days of French history.

HOSPITALITY MEETS IN COUNTRY CLUBS.

Visitors are being entertained extensively now at the various country clubs, where good golf is being played, now that the summer is really here. The most picturesque golf links are now those at Burlingame and at the Sequoyah club on our side of the bay.

What makes country club life especially picturesque just now are the colorful costumes worn by leading women of the smart set—especially the new sweaters and sport coats things of beauty—colors so joyously bright that even the debutante might have fought shy of them a few years ago are now the accepted thing even for matronly folk, though there are softer and less striking color schemes for those who lack audacity.

Exquisite bright shades of rose, of blue, and of yellow predominate, and there are many greens, too, and occasionally one runs across a wonderful purple or red, the latter color in some clear glowing shade, such as flame, or in one of the beautiful old red tones.

The silk sport coats in delicate shades of pink, blue and lavender are very lovely. Every woman this summer tries to add to her wardrobe a pretty sport coat, sometimes of tulle and of flowered silk.

Among the many members of the country clubs around the bay wearing very pretty sport coats, and looking especially well this summer are: Mrs. William Thornton White, Mrs. Elsie and Miss Marian Emerson, Mrs. Philip Clay, Mrs. Warren Harwood, Mrs. Leon Clark, Mrs. George McNear Jr., Mrs. George Nickel, Mrs. George Hammer, Mrs. Victor Metcalf, Miss Cleo Poley, Mrs. Winstington Creed, Miss Pussie Creed, Mrs. Irving Durrell, Miss Edith Beck, Miss Mary Ethel Crocker, Mrs. Dudley Kinnell, Mrs. Irving Durrell, Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, Mrs. Stanley Moore, Mrs. Seymour Hall, Mrs.

Shirley Houghton, Mrs. Fred McNear, Mrs. Chester Cowdin, Mrs. Charles Keeney, Mrs. Charles Tripler Hutchinson, Miss Elsie Schilling, Miss Beatrice Simpson, Mrs. George Greenwood, Mrs. Louis Lohr, Mrs. Josephine Johnson, Mrs. John Valentine, Mrs. Walter Starr, Mrs. F. M. Smith, Mrs. Thomas Olney Jr., Mrs. Percy Walker, Mrs. Oscar Long, Mrs. Mark Reque, Miss Edith Cheesborough, Miss Violet Whitney, Mrs. James K. Moffitt, Miss Fore, Mrs. Herbert Moffitt, Mrs. Seward McNear, Mrs. C. O. G. Miller, Mrs. Bernard Ford, Mrs. Sam Bell Wakefield, Mrs. John J. Denovan, Misses Coogan, Mrs. William Orrick, Mrs. Hugh Goodfellow, Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld, Mrs. Alexander Marx, Mrs. Leon Boqueras, Mrs. J. P. H. Dunn, Mrs. Wickham Havens.

SUMMER CAPITALS RESUME GAYETTES.

As is "the custom of the country," all over the nation country places are now open for the summer, and it is interesting to know where leading families will spend the season. One reads of summer travel.

"About a year ago at this time the great ocean lanes between here and Europe were dotted with immense modern steamships, the floating palaces of the age, which were filled with those going or coming with the idea of spending the summer on one side of the ocean or the other. There is an old saying 'It's an ill wind that blows nobody good,' and while conditions in Europe do not invite travel there is certainly a chance to see America, particularly on the part of the Americans who for so many years have made a practice of traveling abroad during the summer."

"The percentages of resident Americans in Europe is small as compared with the great number of summer travelers. Even those who have for years kept up summer places in England, France or Germany have found it more to their comfort to remain at home this season. Consequently there has been an unprecedented demand for villas and country houses, and of course, there will be a great tide of travel to the two great expositions of California."

Many families well known to Californians are to be at Newport this season. Mrs. Peter Martin, accompanied by her father, Charles Oelrichs, left for the East last week, and she will spend the summer with the Oelrichs family at Newport.

Mrs. Herman Oelrichs has opened her villa, "Roseliff," at Newport and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt Jr., with her little daughters, will also spend the summer at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Duncan have also many California friends who will be interested in their new Newport home, in which they are already settled. It is named "Bonniecrest," and built on the borders of the harbor, it overlooks Narragansett bay. Its architecture suggests an English seventeenth century house. It is one of the largest villas in Newport, having more than one hundred rooms, and it will be the scene of numerous entertainments throughout the season.

Ambassador and Madame Baksteff (Mary Beale of California), will also be in Newport this season, and one of the new comers at Newport will be Mrs. Fletcher Rye of San Francisco, who has taken the Thaw villa not far from Inchiquin.

Among Eastern news one reads: "Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, who for several years have kept an apartment in Paris, have been obliged to give up their European trip and they have taken a place not far from San Francisco, where they will be for the greater part of the summer."

"Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, who have been passing the spring and early summer at Georgian Court, their Lakewood estate, will not be able to visit their daughter, Lady Decies, in England this summer, part of which they will spend at their camp in the Catskill and on their yacht."

"Mr. and Mrs. Elbert H. Carr, who will leave early next month for Chicago, will go later to San Francisco and Honolulu and will return here in October."

Mrs. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney who are now at their country place at Wheatley Hills, L. I., will have a quiet summer, which will be spent in yachting, with an occasional visit to Newport."

Women all over the world owe a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney for the impetus and dignity she has given to woman's work, in her magnificent statue, "The Fountain of El Dorado," at the right of the Tower of Jewels. It is a wonderful piece of sculpture, of the intellectual, dramatic kind.

Professor Newman writes of it: "In general there are three parts to this fountain: the central doorway of El Dorado, just ajar, disclosing faintly this land of happiness, while on either side are two long panels showing great masses of humanity in all manner of positions and attitudes, all striving towards the common goal. Some are shown almost at the end of their journey, one taken with exhaustion, others more vigorous are lending a willing arm to the support of their less successful brothers and sisters about to fall by the wayside. The whole composition of these two figures shows Mrs. Whitney as a very skillful and imaginative artist. It is a gratifying spectacle to see a woman such as Mrs. Whitney, so much heralded in the society columns of New York, find the time to devote herself to so serious and professional a piece of work as the Fountain of El Dorado."

Some of the finest work today along every line is being done by women of the smart sets all over the world.

Around the bay town houses will be kept open for the most part all summer in readiness for the summer and their guests. But much time will be spent in country places, for California is the fascinating land of out of doors. Nearly all the country houses have well-equipped sleeping porches, and there are tents pitched in picturesque fashion for those who have learned to sleep out of doors, and can sleep nowhere else, even in winter.

The Rudolph Spreckels have opened their country place, "Sobre Vista," in Sonoma county, and in that county also is the home of the Tobins.

In Napa county this season will be the Chabots near St. Helena and the Crellins and the William Watts near Napa.

The Tysons have opened their country home near Sausalito and not far from their home in "Tres Encinas," the country place of the E. H. Kittredges, who will entertain their daughters from Honolulu this summer.

The A. Schillings are already established at Woodside, and Captain and Mrs. Minor Goodall have closed their home on Lake street and, with their daughter, Miss Helen Goodall, are at Catalina Island.

Mrs. Wigginton Creed and her children are at Tahoe Tavern, where they will spend the summer, and they will be joined next week by Miss Pussie Creed.

Mrs. Isaac Requa will spend the month of July at Miramar, and she will be accompanied by the Oscar Longs.

The Jacklings have gone to Alaska, having sailed for that northern country in their own yacht, the Cypress, and they have planned other interesting cruises for the summer.

Mrs. A. N. Towse and Mrs. Clinton Worden always spend part of each summer at Del Monte, and that famous hostelry promises to be very gay indeed for the Fourth of July holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hearst are en route from New York, with their sons, and the three boys, George, William and John, will spend the summer with their grandmother, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst.

The A. A. Moores have opened their home at Mission San Jose, where they will spend the entire summer, and the Max Tafts will spend the coming three months at Lake Tahoe, where Mr. Taft has built a very picturesque home.

The Henry Farris, with their son, Sharon Farr, have gone to Bolinas, where the William H. Morrisons have also a delightful country place.

The William H. Pringles have rented their home in Burlingame to those charming people, Commissioner and Mrs. Gode, and are at Monterey for the summer, where they will entertain the Peixottes (Mollie Hutchinson) and the Bernard Ramones.

The Los Gatos homes are all open for the summer, and among the hostesses identified with Oakland affairs are Mrs. A. J. Ralston, the Misses Selby, Mrs. Rawlings and Miss Jane Rawlings, Mrs. T. L. Barker, Mrs. Robert Knight, Mrs. James Allen, Mrs. Frank Brigham and Mrs. Wallace Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Freeman of Berkeley are spending the summer in Rotterdam, Holland, where Mr. Freeman has business interests, and Mrs. John Power Hutchinson (Elizabeth McNear) will be in England the greater part of the summer.

The Clinton Walkers, who will entertain many Minneapolis friends, as well as relatives, this season, will spend the summer, as usual, in Lassen county, where they have such large lumber interests. Their home is near the great lumber camp on the beautiful Feather river, and is wonderfully picturesque.

Mr. and Mrs. Quincy A. Chase have gone to Maine for the season, and their Webster street home is closed.

The H. M. A. Millers have opened their picturesque home in Ross Valley, and their many relatives find a warm welcome there each summer.

In Ross also is the delightful home of the Howard McNeaves, and in Mill Valley is the Cosigan home, where so many Oakland people are made welcome each year.

Mrs. Hill has been entertaining at week-end parties and her mother, Mrs. Joseph Earlhart Smith, is spending the month of June with her. Not far from the home of the Hills is the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Church, the home built along Spanish lines of architecture.

Almost all the picturesque homes in the Santa Cruz mountains are to be opened this season. Among the attractive mountain homes are those of Hon. Guy O. Earl and Arthur Crellin. The daughters of both families have won honors in the University of California, and their college friends are often guests in both of these homes.

Other country homes in the Santa Cruz mountains which will be opened this summer are those of the Capwells, the Arthur Adams, the Edgar Bishops, the Charles Gilmans, the William Highs, the Edward Engs, the A. A. Longs, the Arthur Hollands, the Tyler Henahaws, and the Horace Husseys.

The Edward A. Youngs (Monte Woodbury) will open their home this season, "Benvenue," at Orinda Park, where the many relatives in the large family circle are made welcome.

The Harmon Bells are to spend part of the summer in their country place near Mount Shasta, and the Edward Walshes have already opened their country home at Applegate, in the high Sierras.

Mrs. W. S. Goodfellow and her family will spend the summer, as usual, in their country home on Ocean avenue, the beautiful road leading out of Santa Cruz, and they will have as their guests part of the season Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goodfellow of Fresno.

The William Pierce Johnsons have been spending some time across the bay, having taken apartments in Stanford court. The Claremont Country Club always depends upon Miss Josephine Johnson to put up a good game of golf for her club, and she is one of the best woman golfers in the state.

The William Pierce Johnsons spend the Fourth of July holidays each year at Del Monte.

Mrs. John B. Mhoon and Miss Annie Miller are to close their Piedmont home this season, and they are planning to spend the summer holidays at Lake Tahoe.

People are wandering far afield in these happy June days. The poet Lowell was not a Californian, but he might well have written in our state: "Oh, what is so rare as a day in June. Then, if ever, come perfect days. Then Heaven tries if earth be in tune. And over it softly a warm ray lays."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bliss are spending a few days at the Oakland from Lake Tahoe, where they are occupying their summer home for the season. Their Oakland residence is closed.

Mrs. and Mr. J. T. Nance have invited to guests for the reception they will give to their daughter, Miss Nance, who is spending the summer at the Sequoyah club, the home built along Spanish lines of architecture.

to speak with authority on our naval conditions as Mr. Meyer. While Secretary of the Navy under Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft he made a close and thorough study of the whole situation relating to the Navy and made greater progress than any predecessor since the Civil War toward increasing the efficiency of the Navy and bringing some degree of order to the administration of it. The present administration has closed its eyes to all Mr. Meyer accomplished and literally has gone blithely around with no naval policy at all.

After stating that we need only fear an attack from some great naval power and for that reason need an adequate navy to guarantee peace, Mr. Meyer states the situation so admirably that we will not attempt to improve his phraseology:

"Of the thirty-five battleships that we have today only twenty-one are in commission and ready for emergency. Of those twenty-one three have broken shafts and the fourth is a turbine battleship which was put out of commission because it needs to be thoroughly overhauled. In addition to that there are seventy fighting vessels which are not ready to be called upon for an emergency because they are out of commission and would require a long overhauling.

We lack battle cruisers, scout cruisers, aeroplanes and armed airships. Our submarine fleet is in a critical condition. The complement of torpedo vessels has been reduced from 15 to 25 per cent to get men to commission new boats. This reduction in personnel is a serious handicap, reduces the efficiency of the destroyers, affects contentment and prevents the boats being kept in good condition. The Atlantic fleet needs 6000 men, according to the estimate of the commander in chief of that fleet. The review in New York this year was a poor imitation of previous reviews in that the reserve fleet was absent. It was a mere parade—not a mobilization. It did not indicate the true condition of the fleet, because the people did not know the whole truth. For lack of men ships are laid up in navy yards, where they rapidly deteriorate like a vacant house.

Our ships without men are of little use; and a navy without a policy and with no well considered organization at the Navy Department will only invite a condition of chaos in the event of war.

Mr. Meyer goes on to point out that the Navy is short 18,000 men to man properly the ships we now have, urges a national council of defense, a general staff and a national naval reserve of 50,000 efficient men. These are the recommendations of a patriotic, conservative expert.

THE NEW ATTITUDE TOWARD BUSINESS.

An intelligent observer in Washington, who has been giving attention for some years to the operation of the federal legislation for regulating and restricting business, notes that there is a reaction against the Sherman Antitrust law as indicated by recent decisions of the courts. This change in attitude in respect to restrictive legislation is believed to be something more than merely a matter of legal interpretation. It unquestionably represents the views of a part of the public, and we have long been of the opinion that such a change would occur when the business men and the thinking people of the country came to understand the necessity and value of foreign markets.

Foreign business cannot be built up by small manufacturers. It requires much capital, skill and organization. For these reasons money must be available in large quantities and men who are competent to do big things and to create large organizations are required.

The fact that there is a change in public opinion regarding the Sherman law does not mean that the people are in favor of unrestricted or unregulated monopoly. The people have come to understand that business can be big without being dangerous. The decision of the Steel Corporation case in this connection has been very enlightening to the people of this country in more ways than one. It has shown them that a new attitude in respect to the public and the government has been taken by big business. The proceedings in the steel case clearly reveal the fact that the officials of that important corporation are trying to do what they believe is right and just and that their main endeavor is to live within the letter and spirit of the law and to deal fairly with the government and with the people. Another illuminating fact of importance disclosed by the steel decision is that the percentage of products manufactured by various independent producers is increasing rather than declining. This is taken to mean that there may be a considerable degree of competition or independent production even in lines of business which are largely in the hands of a single concern. The public quite properly draws from the reasonings of the court and from the facts presented, the inference that the methods and conditions of business are more important than the size of some one factor in it, or that there has been a combination of a number of companies to bring about economies and more effective business organization. This, it is pointed out, is a line of thought which comes close to emphasizing the distinction formerly drawn by some public men between so-called good and bad trusts. To fair-minded men it is abundantly proved that badness in business does not necessarily have any relation to size. The whole matter is really reduced to the question of fair as opposed to unfair practices in commercial life. The growth of public opinion along these lines will undoubtedly tend to a further modification and adjustment of our business legislation and will doubtless bring about changes which, while giving the public ample protection, will make it easy and more profitable for well meaning men and corporations to do business in this country.

ROCKEFELLER AND CHINA.

The Rockefeller Foundation has made the important announcement that the China medical board of the Foundation has taken over the Union Medical College at Peking, the largest hospital in China. The college was founded and owned by the London Missionary Society, a Congregationalist institution, and the Foundation paid $200,000 for its properties.

The institution is to be made the nucleus of a system of medical colleges throughout the Republic, by which a comprehensive plan for medical teaching will be carried out. About two years ago the Rockefeller philanthropy sent a commission of medical experts, including Dr. Wallace Butterick, Dr. Simon Flexner, director of laboratories of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, and Dr. William H. Welch, professor of pathology at Johns Hopkins University. This commission made a careful and extended study of public health and medicine in China and of the steps necessary to carry out the plan to build up a modern medical system in the country—a scheme which Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Sr., is said to be giving his personal attention.

The taking over of the Union Medical College is obviously the first step in a plan which contemplates building up the already noteworthy medical system foreign missionaries have established in China, so that in time they will comprise one big American philanthropy. The Foundation has made allowances to several missionary institutions and has asked others for information as to how their work may be strengthened and expanded. Chinese medical students are to be sent to this country to complete their education.

The Rockefeller Foundation has undertaken a magnificent and stupendous work. China is a land of 400,000,000 people and the work of the medical missionaries, enthusiastic and earnest as it was, has hardly succeeded in touching the edges of the great fabric of Oriental ideas and practices. To generally diffuse modern preventive and sanitary ideas among the people will work incalculable good; to study the somewhat unique pathological conditions and apply modern medical practice throughout the country is the work of a generation but it will do more than anything else to place China in the front ranks of the family of nations. Also the work of the Foundation will contribute in a notable degree to increasing American influence in the Orient.

THE UNFITNESS OF THE NAVY.

When Mr. George von L. Meyer addressed the members of the National Security League the other day, he dealt largely in facts and with existing conditions. He told of the ruinousness of the Navy. Yet he detailed only what is already known to the naval authorities of all the countries of the world, withholding much information regarding the inadequacy of our Navy for diplomatic reasons. Few men in this country are so well qualified

PURCHASE GAS TO FULFILL VOW OF DEATH

COUPLE KEEP SUICIDE PACT

Unidentified Woman Companion of Bath Rubber in Tragedy.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Pledged to one another even to death, Harry Schweitzer, employed in a local bath establishment, and a beautiful woman of whom not even her name is known, retired last night to a room in an apartment house on Webster street and turned on the gas. This morning their dead bodies were found when another roomer, detecting the odor of gas, summoned the police.

To make sure that there would be a sufficient flow of gas to accomplish the purpose which he and his paramour had set for themselves, Schweitzer last evening deposited 25 cents more with his landlady against his gas account. The gas in his room were all found turned on full blast this morning.

Investigation has failed to solve the mystery of the identity of the woman who died by Schweitzer's side. She was about 35 years of age and was unknown to either Mrs. Mary Hayes, the aged woman from whom Schweitzer rented his room or to Mrs. R. McGuire, a neighboring roomer who discovered the suicide this morning.

Schweitzer was 42 years of age, and had resided at the Hayes' lodging house for the past two months. Mrs. Hayes had been informed that he was divorced a year ago, but had nothing beyond vague information of this fact. Schweitzer was rubber in a Hamman bath on Market street.

MUIR ESTATE LARGE, IS APPRAISER'S REPORT

SACRAMENTO, June 26.—The estate of the late John Muir of Martinez, who in his quiet way became one of the great naturalists of this world, turns out to be worth $251,846, according to an appraiser's report to State Controller Chambers.

This was a great surprise, not only to his friends, but even to his children, as at the time of his death he was supposed to be worth only from $50,000 to $100,000.

Rich Widow Accuses Alonzo Peralta

Seniors Cross, but Can't Use Chem. Pond
So Summer Session Maids
Perch on Fence

BERKELEY, June 26.—What should the women of the summer session think of the regular university year? Apparently, this is the attitude of the many young women enrolled at Berkeley, for they may be seen at almost any hour of the day sitting with unconcern on the holiest of holies on the campus—the senior bench.

Yesterday a senior, made desperate at the seeming desecration, chalked in large letters on a bulletin behind the bench:

"It has been against all sacred tradition and custom for ladies to perch on this bench."

The ladies of the summer session continue to sit on the bench, and as the ladies of the summer session are in a decided majority, they will probably retain the privilege.

California Bear to Grace Auto License

SACRAMENTO, June 26.—When Superintendent of the Motor Vehicle Department H. A. French puts out the 1815 motor vehicle license, made permanent under the law passed by the legislature, a grizzly bear, such as graces the great seal of the State of California, will be part of the design, on which French has put much study and effort. The section of the plate bearing the date of registration will be in the form of a bear. The new plates will be three inches shorter and one inch narrower and will be in blue and white, instead of yellow and black as now. The bear will be on the front of the plate, the only difference being that the bear on the new plate will be detachable, that the tag may be changed each year.

The plates are to be made of better material, so that they will last through the life of an ordinary car.

DIABLO STAGE LINE IN OPERATION TODAY

An automobile stage service from the base to the summit of Mt. Diablo will be inaugurated today, according to announcement made to the management of the Automobile Stage Line, which is a special train daily to the foot of the mountain for accommodation of tourists and visitors. Completion of this highway, which was accomplished by the state of California, is regarded as something of a triumph, much of the work having been done in the past few weeks. The ascent to the summit has been made during the week by many members of the Mt. Diablo Park Club, who pronounce it without any difficulties. The scenic features of the trip, and especially the view from the summit, which covers a large portion of California, are said to be without parallel in this part of the state.

For accommodation of tourists, the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern will operate trains connecting with the 8 a. m. boat from San Francisco, leaving Oakland at 8:22 a. m. and reaching the mountain top at 11:15 a. m. After an hour's stay at the summit the auto stages will carry sightseers to the Mt. Diablo Park Inn, where luncheon will be served. The second train will carry passengers from San Francisco, leaving at 1 p. m., leaving Oakland at 1:30 p. m. and reaching the summit at 4 p. m. Returning, passengers will reach Oakland at 7:22 p. m. and arrive in San Francisco at 7:50 p. m.

ARREST MADE ON FRAUD CHARGE

He Made Love, Borrowed
Money and Slapped Her,
She Alleges.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Mrs. Grace Revell this morning swore to a warrant against Alonzo Peralta before Police Judge Sullivan. The case will be called next week in the local police court.

Alonzo Peralta, society and club favorite of the bay cities, who resides in San Leandro, spent last night in the county jail, awaiting the arrival of the San Francisco police this morning. He is taken across the bay to face charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, preferred by Mrs. Grace Revell, 350 Pine street, San Francisco, who alleges that he duped her after making love and promising to make her his wife.

Before leaving the county jail in the custody of San Francisco police officers, Peralta had never been before the county jail, and he had arranged for the necessary $3000 bail, and that he would be released from custody as soon as the formality of booking him in the San Francisco prison had been gone through with. He denies Mrs. Revell's charges.

Mrs. Revell alleges that after Peralta had made violent love to her, and announced her as his fiancée, he induced her to loan him $1500, giving as security checks and notes, which she has thus far failed to collect.

FINANCES AND ARDOR FLAGGED
Mrs. Revell's complaint recites that she was stricken with nervous prostration upon realizing that Peralta's love was growing cold, and his checks and notes still remained uncollectable. She suffered an attack of nervous prostration, she says, and had to go to Europe for her health. She returned from Paris recently—depressed, she declares, to prosecute Peralta.

Mrs. Revell and Peralta became acquainted in November of 1912 at a dinner party in Oakland. She says that Peralta professed love for her on first sight and called upon her frequently. Five months after their first meeting, she alleges, that he borrowed money from her, and gave her checks on the Central National Bank to cover the amount. He later asked her to return these checks, she said, and gave her one on the San Leandro Bank for the full amount.

A BLOW, SHE ALLEGES.
"Two days after he gave me this check," she said, "he called me and telephoned to me and asked me to hold up the check for a while, explaining that he did not have that amount in the bank. I agreed."

"I was in a state of mind after this," she continues, "that Peralta proposed marriage and was accepted. Peralta, she declares, took her to the home of a cousin, James Hoyt Toler, Piedmont capitalist, where she was really married. She was so depressed that she was induced to lend Peralta $750 on his note, she avers. Then, declares Mrs. Revell, when she called upon Peralta at the Hotel St. Mark a short time later to ask him for the money he owed her, she was slapped. The checks and notes had been returned from bank, she said. They are still unpaid.

"I'll make a statement that will explain my side of the case when I get this little affair of my arrest straightened out in San Francisco," Peralta said this morning. "There is nothing of truth in this. I am not guilty of obtaining money under false pretenses. It is all technical matter."

FINANCE IS INVOLVED.
Mrs. Revell said:

"When I made out my first check of $400 to him he issued me three checks on the Central National Bank of Oakland for that amount. I waited several days before I attempted to have the checks cashed. Then he came to me and asked me to give him back the checks, so that he could give me one on the Bank of San Leandro. I gave him back the checks and about a day later he telephoned me and told me not to cash the checks, as he didn't have all the necessary money."

"In the meantime he was making desperate love to me and asked me to become his wife. I consented and then he wanted to borrow more money from me. This I refused him, and he asked me to give him back the $400. He then brought me over to his cousin's mansion at Lake Merritt, where I was dined and wine. He then again declared his love for me and told me of all the wealth that was coming to him."

"Several days later he wanted to borrow $750 more. I got the money for him at the Central National Bank and he gave me a note for it. "Once when I asked him to pay me or account of his failure to pay me back the $400, he slapped my face and knocked me down. I had to take a trip to Europe to recover my health and when I asked his relations to try and do something for me the only satisfaction I got was the reply that it was their fault."

WOMAN ARGUES FOR LOWER ASSESSMENT

SACRAMENTO, June 26.—Mrs. I. B. Becker of Los Angeles is one of the first women to appear before the State Board of Equalization to protest against an assessment of taxes under the new system. She argued for a reduction in the levy against the Roman-Willis Estate company. No action was taken by the board.

Baby Sayre Cries; But Wilson Sleeps

Presidential Slumbers Not Disturbed by Wails

By Associated Press.
CORNWALL, N. H., June 26.—President Wilson, taking a brief vacation at the "Summer White House," spent this morning walking through the woods of his place in the Adirondacks, and working in his study on correspondence. He planned to take a long automobile ride in the afternoon. He received no word from Washington.

A color night, which made blankets necessary, allowed the President a good sleep, and although Baby Sayre cried several times during the night, Mr. Wilson was not disturbed.

REVOLUTIONS FOMENTED IN U. S., SENATOR SAYS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 26.—The revolution which deposed Diaz as President of Mexico was born on American soil, near the District of Columbia, said Senator William Alden Smith last night before the Wisconsin Club in an address in which he assailed the Administration and declared that he would not believe that others would follow Mr. Bryan's course.

It was told by a man under oath," said Senator Smith, "that he had been paid $50,000 by the successful revolutionists for his part in starting the revolution to depose Diaz. Every gun that has been fired in Mexico has been fired by powder made in the United States. The salute of twenty-one guns demanded by the revolutionists has never been fired. Reparation has never been made for the hundreds of American and foreign lives lost on Mexico's soil. It would not be necessary to go to war, yet it would not have been necessary to furnish arms and ammunition."

ALLOWED $2 WEEKLY, HUSBAND WINS DIVORCE

FREDERICK M. PITCHARD, a printer, was granted a divorce from his wife, Mrs. E. N. Reeder yesterday. Although he was the defendant in the case, Mrs. Reeder sued first, alleging that her spouse was penniless, failed to provide for her and would not buy her proper clothing.

Pitchard filed a cross-complaint in which he asked for the divorce on the ground that his wife was cruel to him. He testified that he was his wife's only check, with the exception of $2, out of which he had to pay for lunches and ferry and car fares. When they went to theaters, he said, his wife humiliated him by buying the tickets and handing them to the man at the door. Judge Reeder thought this sufficient evidence of cruelty to award the decree to Pitchard on his cross-complaint.

SEES OPPORTUNITY IN SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE

NEW YORK, June 26.—Theodore E. Burton, former United States senator from Ohio, has returned here on the steamer Verdi, after a tour of South America, enthusiastic over American trade possibilities in the Latin Republics. Better transportation facilities, he said, was the great need.

"We have the opportunity now to capture all the trade formerly held by Great Britain and Germany," said the former senator. "But the United States needs a fast line of steamers to Rio Janeiro and Buenos Ayres."

Senator Burton visited every South American country except Ecuador, Venezuela and Colombia.

DIVORCED PAIR BATTLE FOR CHILDREN

Mrs. E. D. Storie Obtains Writ of Habeas Corpus in Dramatic Struggle.

Upon a writ of habeas corpus granted yesterday on the petition of Mrs. Emma D. Storie, former wife of Don M. Chase, an optician at 414 Fourteenth street, the dramatic battle for 5-year-old Donald Chase and 3-year-old Thelma, children of the couple will be continued Monday morning in the Appellate Court, San Francisco. The struggle for possession of the little ones has aroused considerable excitement and woven together a series of incidents that would be a suitable foundation for a motion picture scenario.

The granting of a writ of habeas corpus to Mrs. Storie will force Chase to appear in court Monday morning, accompanied by the two minor children, who are now in his possession. In applying for the writ Mrs. Storie testified that the children are being illegally restrained of their liberty by Don M. Chase, their grandfather, of 1105 Jackson street.

The affection manifested by each parent has caused a swirl of incidents to arise, the climax of which came when the children were said to have been the victims of an alleged kidnapping on the part of the mother when five masked men endeavored to get possession of the tots as their grandparents were putting them on a Western Pacific train at Quince Junction two weeks ago. Conductor Dowden was the hero of the occasion, it having been said that he wrestled with the men and frustrated their ill-gotten purpose.

In May of this year Chase obtained such a modification of the decree of divorce, granted at Ashland on November 2, 1914, as enable him to take charge of the children from June to August of each year. Mrs. Storie has since then been in custody of the children and $30 a month alimony at the time of her final decree of divorce.

Mrs. Storie, however, would not give up the children and appealed to the superior court of Sacramento, still keeping possession of Donald and Thelma. Chase then had the children restored to him on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Superior Judge Moncure of Plumas county. The alleged kidnapping, which followed soon after, now has custody of the children pending the determination of her appeal, which she alleges takes precedence over the writ issued by the lower court.

Noted Journalist of Britain Dead

LONDON, June 26, 11:15 a. m.—Alexander Kenealy, editor of the Daily Mirror, died today at the age of 51 years.

Mr. Kenealy, who was born in Sussex, England, devoted all his life to journalism. He joined the staff of the New York Herald in 1882 and represented that paper on Rear Admiral Peary's first Arctic expedition. He became a member of the New York World in 1895 and was its correspondent with the American fleet in the Spanish war.

Mr. Kenealy began newspaper work in London as news editor of the Daily Express in 1881. Three years later he went with the Daily Mirror. Under the non descript pseudonym Vernon Ponsonby he wrote "The Progress of the World," which was also the author of "The Letters of Alphonse Montan."

Seek Way to Stop Expert Resignations

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 26.—Secretary Garrison awaited a decision by Attorney General Gregory as to whether an army officer has a "reasonable right" to resign his commission in time of peace. The opinion was asked for by the Secretary as the result of the many offers to expert ordnance officers of the army by private manufacturers of war munitions of larger salaries than paid by the Government.

The problem thus presented to the War Department is admittedly a serious one. Already, seven resignations have been submitted, and the Secretary is pending the decision of the Attorney General. The other four were accepted before the gravity of the situation was realized.

Smoke Moderate at Lassen Peak

REDDING, June 26.—Lassen Peak, 10,924 feet high, continued today emitting a moderate volume of smoke but establishing a record for duration of an active period. Smoke has drifted thirty miles southward, blown by a stiff wind. The ash fall was lighter today than yesterday.

FIANCE LAZY, EXPLAINS WIDOW

Watering Lawn, Driving Car and Feeding Chickens Not in His Vocabulary.

What her fiancé wouldn't do for her: Wouldn't water the grass. Wouldn't act as chauffeur. Said it wouldn't take care of chickens. Said it was too much care. Would not get work.

Too little work blasted the romance of Louis A. Sullivan of Oakland, if the papers, prepared in resistance to his breach of promise suit against Mrs. Edith Amos of Los Angeles are accepted as true. For Mrs. Amos, who has decided to fight the case to a finish, and today is busy with her lawyers rounding up more evidence for her side, declares that she wouldn't marry the former chauffeur because he didn't work and wouldn't work.

"I was engaged to Louis Sullivan once," she declared. "But now—now will I be. I told him I would marry him if he quit drinking and went to work. I attended a lodge function with him and with my own ears heard him boast that he wouldn't have to work any more; that he was going to have tenebricous steaks smothered in mushrooms, two-bit cigars and wine for the rest of his life."

"I bought a nice home in Los Angeles, and bought a machine, and engaged Mr. Sullivan to act as my secretary, take care of the machine and look after the things I couldn't attend to."

"He wouldn't water the grass, and next he complained that running the machine hurt his knees. I bought some rabbits and chickens to have something to attend to, but he complained that they were such a nuisance. Then I began to do something. Finally told him that as he had not kept his promise to work and not drink I withdrew my promise to marry him."

"I remember telling Mr. Sullivan this in February, and on June 1, before I adopted Alois, we met in the office. He told me that he had $100 and told him to get work and take care of himself."

Mrs. Amos, noted in Los Angeles as the "millionaire mother," through the adoption of Alois Maier, is a wealthy widow. She was at one time a singer in San Francisco.

GOOD ROADS BENEATH CLEAR SKIES FOR TOURS

Conditions of roads as reported in The Tribune of last Saturday have not changed materially. The ALTAMONT PASS, on the main route to Stockton and valley points south is still closed, and will not be open for travel until about July 15. Such is the latest advice to come from the highway commission.

COAST ROUTE SOUTH—Leave Oakland via the Foothill boulevard to Hayward. Take the State Highway as far as Pacific and turn right to Centerville, connecting there with the lower main road to San Jose. At Milpitas, detour left over the Calaveras route, which is reached just before entering the town of Milpitas. Go through the hills north of the Milpitas hotel and turn to right, continuing to Alviso. At this point turn to left and continue straight into San Jose. Either route is offered while the main road is closed. From San Jose via State Highway to Morgan Hill, Gilroy and San Juan. Construction between San Jose and San Juan, dry and passable. Construction may be avoided by leaving highway at Gilroy, turning easterly to San Felipe, thence south to Hollister, and west to San Juan, or via Santa Clara direct from Gilroy to Hollister and thence to San Juan. Thence over new San Jose and San Juan road, dry and passable. Good, with exception of slight detour at Chula, on account of highway construction, thence via King City and San Ardo to Bradley, in good condition.

Wooden bridge over Salinas river does away with fording. From San Luis Obispo county line, through miles north of Paso Robles, comes a better road; thence over fair dirt road to Atascadero, rough for three miles; thence State Highway to San Luis Obispo, except short distance on Coastroute, in good condition. San Luis Obispo to Pismo Beach and Arroyo Grande, highway completed; thence to Santa Maria, Modesto, Merced, and to ten miles below Maricopa (short detour around construction and back to highway at Monterey), thence over State Highway to Madera, Fresno and Kingsburg. Road from Kingsburg to river open for construction. In Kingsburg, turn left on Kingsburg road, and south to Visalia. In Visalia, turn left on Reddick road, and south to Visalia via Visalia, Kingsburg, Fresno, and Kingsburg. Highway from Delano to Bakersfield.

ROUTE NORTH FROM VALLEJO VIA FAIRFIELD, WINTERS, MADISON, SLACKS, DUNNIGAN, ARBUCKLE, WILLIAMS, WILLOWS, CORNING, RED BLUFF, AND REDDING—Vallejo to Napa Junction, Jackson Canyon to Yuba.

Thence on to Edison, White Wolf grade, Thachap pass, over Creek to Yuba. Good Springs, Elbow Lake, Bonnet Canyon to Sequoia and Los Angeles. Tejon, passable and in fair condition.

PACIFIC HIGHWAY—Leave Oakland via Broadway to Twelfth street; turn to right and continue on Twelfth street to Twenty-third street; turn to right on Twelfth street, thence on boulevard to the Dublin Canyon boulevard; turn to left and continue on paved road to Dublin and Livermore. Leave Livermore via East street to end of road, three miles; turn north one mile to second crossroad; turn to east and over highway to Patterson, 2.5 miles to State Highway; turn north 2.5 miles to Lyons Highway; seven miles west of Tracy. Continue on State Highway to Stockton, and Sacramento. From Sacramento, completed State Highway to Roseville and Lincoln, thence over nine miles to the right of State Highway, over the highway to Marysville. Leave Marysville via Central House road to Oroville and Chico, good; or from Marysville to Yuba City, Gridley, Biggs, Nelson, to Chico fair. Short stretch of construction. Turn west at Chico to Hamilton City, good; or to Colusa, duty, and over highway to Corning and good road to Red Bluff and Redding. North of Redding, Kennett ferry running, road passable to Dunsmuir (rough between Le Moine and Castella). Dunsmuir to Yreka, good. Over Shasta mountains, improving daily. Road through Oregon to Seattle and Vancouver. Good road from San Francisco to Portland, Seattle and Vancouver reported in better condition than for the past seven years. Monaquie or Agor to Klamath Falls, good; to Crater lake not open.

MARIN AND LAKE COUNTY TRIPS—Go out San Pablo avenue as far as McCloud, thence to Glenn, and follow the Key Route tracks past the Santa Fe shops and through the town of Old Point Richmond, past the standard Oil Works to the ferry pier. The ferry service is as follows:

Leaves Richmond—4:15, 10:15, 12:15, Sunday only; 1:45, daily except Sunday; 2:15, 3:45, and 7:20, Sunday only.

Leaves Point San Quentin—7:20, 9:20, 11:20, 2:40, 4:40, 6:30, Sunday only.

At Point San Quentin was the road to the right, four miles to San Rafael, thence to Petaluma, fair. Construction in North Petaluma. Turn right off Main street in Petaluma at sign "Sonoma and Napa" and go east to third road from town. Turn north and continue via signs to Penn Grove and Santa Rosa. Detour to the right, down road, and over highway to Ukiah, fair. From either Healdsburg or Cloverdale to The Geysers, good. Willits to Eureka via Laytonville, Harris, Dyer, fair. Eureka to Crescent City, good. To Grants Pass, fair. From Grants Pass to Klamath not open.

ROUTE NORTH FROM VALLEJO VIA FAIRFIELD, WINTERS, MADISON, SLACKS, DUNNIGAN, ARBUCKLE, WILLIAMS, WILLOWS, CORNING, RED BLUFF, AND REDDING—Vallejo to Napa Junction, Jackson Canyon to Yuba.

field, thence via cut-off west of Yuba, thence to White Wolf grade, Thachap pass, over Creek to Yuba. Good Springs, Elbow Lake, Bonnet Canyon to Sequoia and Los Angeles. Tejon, passable and in fair condition.

Turn west at Chico to Hamilton City, good; or to Colusa, duty, and over highway to Corning and good road to Red Bluff and Redding. North of Redding, Kennett ferry running, road passable to Dunsmuir (rough between Le Moine and Castella). Dunsmuir to Yreka, good. Over Shasta mountains, improving daily. FIRE DESTROYS OLD GUNTER ISLE LANDMARK

EUREKA, June 26.—A camp fire completely left a berry-pickers on Gunter's place, on Gunter's Island, and Sunday morning has removed one of the old landmarks in the lumber industry of the county. Incidentally it has also removed what for years has been an eye-sore along the city front. This was the ruins of what was known as the old Excelsior mill on Gunter Island directly opposite the foot of F street. The mill was stripped and abandoned about twenty or more years ago and the huge lumbering which had once housed the machinery of the most up-to-date mills of its day had fallen into decay until it had collapsed. The roof and walls had fallen in, and the huge logs had grown among the scenes of activity of the early day lumber manufacturers, and the ruin became so complete that it even lacked picturesque.

SEEK GIRL STOLEN BY UNIFORMED MEN

DENVER, June 26.—Kidnaped by six men in the uniforms of United States soldiers, Margaret Much, 15 years old, is being sought today by police and posses of enraged residents of Arapahoe county. Six soldiers, suspected of complicity in the kidnapping, are held in the guardhouse at Logan, near here. The girl was riding near the fort in a surrey last night with a youthful escort and another young couple when the six soldiers appeared. Margaret's mother is protesting. Sheriff McCrumb of Arapahoe county said today the six soldiers asserted the girl submitted willingly to their attentions and that she returned later to Denver.

SCHOOL DAY ROMANCE TO END IN MARRIAGE

CONCORD, June 26.—Miss Lucy Margaret Nopel, daughter of William Nopel and Mrs. Nopel, who recently purchased a ranch at Pleasant Hill, near Concord, will be united in marriage at the home of her parents to Henry Chester Buffington of Forest Ranch, Butte county. The couple were schoolmates and the romance dates from that period. They will be married by Rev. E. G. Davies of Grace Episcopal Church, Martinez.

DOCTOR IS MODERN PIONEER Must Blaze Future Trails, Says Medical President

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—The work of the United States army surgeons, under Dr. William C. Corgan, which made possible the building of the Panama canal, has opened up a great new field of development of the tropics. Under the supervision of physicians, it is predicted, great areas where now death rules will be opened up to cultivation as new empires capable of feeding a world. This is the keynote of the deliberations of the American Academy of Medicine, now in session in this city. The dominant note was struck with the opening of the convention last night by the organization's president, Dr. Woods Hutchinson, writer and publicist. "The Physician as a Pioneer" was his subject, in line with the general topic to which all the sessions of this year's academy of medicine are devoted, namely, "Medicine in its Relationships to Commerce and Transportation."

Dr. Hutchinson said in part: "The real enemy of the pioneer, the chief obstacle to the spread of civilization is not Indians, whether or not they are even famine or disease. Most schemes of colonization that failed—failed not from famine or the attack of enemies, but from the diseases of the tropics. This is not merely the age of man, but the age of insects, geologically considered, and the battle is to the death between them for the possession of the earth. In the tropics the insects get the whip hand of man and keep him stupid, short lived, uncivilized. It was the plague of flies, the bloody tyranny of insects that drove man out of the warm, comfortable, fertile tropics into the chilly, rain-swept, half-year frozen north. Now grown to full human stature he is coming back to invade and reconquer the tropics and put to flight the ancient foes of the race. In the first requisite of a new colony or a pioneering expedition was a captain, a bold and skillful fighting man, with muskets for every grown man in the party and plenty of powder and ball. But now the requirements of a new colony are a doctor-engineer with microscope and test tubes, spades and trenching machines and plenty of quinine, kerosene and mosquito netting."

DOCTORS TO PIONEER. "In the near future no colony or land company will be permitted to take settlers into their new homes until a thorough and complete survey shall have been made of the region, sanitary, medical, entomological, expert agricultural. And at least a sufficient area, accommodate and safety the first group of settlers shall be provided."

Several important changes have been made in the free coupon offer of The Tribune, by which boys and girls clipping the coupons have been furnished free passes to the Zone attractions at the Exposition.

EXAMPLE IS GIVEN OF ECONOMY IN CELEBRATION

Telling of the striking record of his organization in saving money at public functions, W. H. Atwood, past commander of Porter Post, Grand Army of the Republic, declares that the Grand Army is a striking example for other organizations in saving money. For three years he has had charge of Decoration Day finances. He has always effected a saving over the estimate. "Last year," he declared, "the council appropriated $200 for Memorial Day. I was at the head of the finance committee and knew how the bills were held down. As a result we gave a fine celebration, and it only cost $152.48. This is the third year of success in this work. We have broken the record for organizations."
